

ACADEMIC LEADERSHIP FORUM

“Inspire, Engage, and Implement – Philanthropy at Penn State”

The Boardroom, Nittany Lion Inn
Friday, April 6, 2018
8:00 a.m. - 12:00 p.m.

- | | |
|-------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 8:00 a.m. | Registration |
| 8:25 a.m. | Introductions, Overview and Objectives
Kathy Bieschke , Vice Provost for Faculty Affairs |
| 8:30 - 9:00 a.m. | Development Update and Overview
O. Richard Bundy III , Vice President for Development and Alumni Relations |
| 9:00 - 10:00 a.m. | Panel #1 – Philanthropy, Students, and Families
Why do Penn Staters give to Penn State? The answer, for many, is to benefit students. In this moderated session a panel of Penn State students will share the impact that philanthropy, particularly scholarships, has had on their educations and lives. |
| 10:00-10:15 a.m. | Break (refreshments) |
| 10:15-11:00 a.m. | Panel #2 – Philanthropy and the Institution
What role does philanthropy play in making new initiatives possible at Penn State? How do University leaders partner with fundraisers to move these initiatives forward? A panel of representatives from across the University will provide insight into these questions in this moderated session.
Eric Reinhard , Director of Campaign Imperatives
Neil Sharkey , Vice President for Research
Marie Hardin , Dean, Donald P. Bellisario College of Communications
Jose Lugaro , Director of Development, Donald P. Bellisario College of Communications |
| 11:00-11:45 a.m. | Wrap Up and Questions
O. Richard Bundy III , Vice President for Development and Alumni Relations |